- 6.2
 - 6.2.1 A Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Trust or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Trust.
 - 6.2.2 A Trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Trust's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993.
 - 6.2.3 A Trustee may receive an indemnity from the Trust in the circumstances specified in Article 117.
- 6.3 None of the income or property of the Trust may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Trust. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Trustee receiving:
 - 6.3.1 a benefit from the Trust in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Trust;
 - 6.3.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Trust.
- 6.4 No Trustee or connected person may:
 - 6.4.1 buy any goods or services from the Trust on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
 - 6.4.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Trust;

In this clause 5 a "financial benefit" means a benefit direct or indirect which is either money or has a monetary value.

 - 6.5.2 A Trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Trust where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73A to 73C of the Charities Act 1993.
 - 6.5.3 Subject to article 6.6, a Trustee or connected person may provide the Trust with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Trust by the Trustee or connected person.

 - 6.5.6 A Trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the Trustee or connected person to the Trust if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the Trustee concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
 - 6.5.7 The Trustees may arrange for the purchase, out of the funds of the Trust, of insurance designed to indemnify the Trustees in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993.

 - (ii) the Trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Trust.
 - 6.6.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - 6.6.3 The other Trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Trust to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the Trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a Trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
 - 6.6.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Trust.

- 6.6.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting.
- 6.6.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the Trustees in the minute book.
- 6.6.7 A majority of the Trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 6.4.

29. A person expelled from membership under articles 24 to 27 shall cease to be a member with effect from the time at which the relevant resolution is passed by Council.

GENERAL MEETINGS

30. A general meeting shall be convened by Council on a requisition by the members in accordance with the Acts.
31. The Trust shall hold a general meeting in every calendar year as its annual general meeting at such time and place as may be determined by Council. The Trust shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every general meeting shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the preceding meeting. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, if Council calls a general meeting, Council may determine that the meeting is to be held as a Hybrid Meeting or as a Virtual Meeting. In the event that a Hybrid Meeting or a Virtual Meeting is to be held, Council shall, notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles but subject to the Companies Act, establish the procedures for the conduct thereof including, without limitation, the procedures for voting by means of electronic communications. Where a general meeting is to be held as a Hybrid

Meeting or as a Virtual Meeting it shall be deemed to take place where the person chairing the meeting is located.

32. Subject to the preceding article and to the requirements of the Acts as to the holding of annual general meetings, Council may convene general meetings whenever it thinks fit.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

33. The minimum period of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Trust is fourteen clear days.
34. Notice convening a meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting or, if that be the case, that the meeting will be held as a Hybrid Meeting or as a Virtual Meeting. It shall also state the terms of any resolution which is to be proposed as a special resolution or extraordinary resolution and shall indicate the general nature of any other business to be transacted at the meeting.
35. Notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as an annual general meeting.
36. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner authorised by these articles to every member (except those members who have not supplied to the Trust a current address in the United Kingdom for the giving of notices to them) and to the auditors; no other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.
37. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

38. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; 50 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum. In respect of a Hybrid Meeting or a Virtual Meeting, "present" includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by Council that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the chairman of the meeting may determine. If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.
39. The President (or in his absence the Chairman of Council) shall (if present and willing to act as Chairman) preside as chairman of the meeting; if neither the President nor the Chairman of Council is present and willing to act as chairman within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to act as chairman or, if there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, he shall be chairman.
40. If no Trustee willing to act as chairman is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall by a poll elect one of their number to be chairman.

41. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting by a poll) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
42. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which could properly have been transacted at the meeting which was adjourned if the adjournment had not taken place.
43. Where a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, at least seven days clear notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and indicating the general nature of the business to be transacted; in any other case, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting.
44. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded by the chairman of the meeting, or by at least three members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting.
45. Unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the preceding article, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
46. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting; a demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made nor the result of a show of hands declared after the demand was so withdrawn.
47. A poll demanded under article 44 shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may proceed pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
48. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, a resolution in writing signed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being organisations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the Trust duly convened and held. Any such resolution in writing may consist of two or more documents in like form each signed by one or more members.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

49. Every member shall have one vote whether voting by hand or poll and shall be entitled to appoint another member as his proxy to attend and vote on all resolutions at general meetings instead of him provided that a proxy form in the form provided by the Trust with the notice of the relevant general meeting is delivered duly completed with the name and address of the member appointing the proxy, the identity of the person appointed as the proxy and the general meeting to which it relates and signed by the member to the office of the Trust not less than one clear day prior to the day of the meeting to which it refers.

50. Save as herein expressly provided no person other than a member who shall have paid every subscription and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Trust in respect of his membership shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question at any general meeting.
51. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
52. No objection may be raised as to the validity of any vote except at the meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid; any such objection shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and binding.

MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF COUNCIL

53. The number of members of Council shall not be less than ten and not more than eighteen unless otherwise determined by special resolution.

ELECTION, RESIGNATION AND RE-APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES

54. Any member who wishes to be considered for election as a Trustee at an annual general meeting shall deliver (by the date previously notified by Council) to the Secretary a written notice of his willingness to stand for election (in such form as Council requires) signed by him and countersigned by three other members qualified to attend and vote at the meeting.
55. At an annual general meeting the Trust may elect as a Trustee any member in respect of whom a written notice has been received in compliance with the preceding article provided the member is a natural person aged 18 years or older and not disqualified from acting under the provisions of article 60.
56. The Trustees shall have the power to co-opt any person or persons as additional members of the Council as they may determine from time to time. Except that such person or persons may not be co-opted without the approval of the Chairman of Council.
57. Subject to the provisions of article 61, at each annual general meeting
 - 57.1 all Trustees who have been co-opted since the date of the last annual general meeting shall retire from office; and
 - 57.2 out of the remaining Trustees, all those elected at the annual general meeting three years previously shall retire from office.
58. At every annual general meeting the members of the Trust shall elect Trustees in place of those retiring under article 57.
59. Subject to the provisions of articles 61, the members of the Trust may not at any annual general meeting re-elect any Trustee retiring under article 57 who has been an elected Trustee for six consecutive years prior to that annual general meeting. Any Trustee who retires after six years may stand for re-election at the annual general meeting in the year succeeding that of his retirement.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

60. The Officers of the Trust shall consist of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary and any other executive officers as Council may determine, and Trustees shall be elected at each annual general meeting to hold such offices until the annual general meeting which next follows their appointment.
61. Notwithstanding that a Trustee may have been elected for a period of six consecutive years or more, the members of the Trust may at any annual general meeting re-elect such Trustee, provided that he:
- 61.1 is also elected as an Officer at that annual general meeting,
 - 61.2 shall retire as both a Trustee and as an Officer at the annual general meeting which next follows;
 - 61.3 has not been elected as a Trustee for a period of more than twelve consecutive years in aggregate, or as an Officer for a period of more than six consecutive years in aggregate,
- and any such Trustee who retires after twelve consecutive years as an elected Trustee, or 6 consecutive years as an Officer, may only stand for re-election as a Trustee and Officer at the annual general meeting in the year succeeding that of his retirement.
62. The appointment of any Officer shall terminate if he ceases to be a Trustee or if he resigns from such office by notice to the Trust.
63. If the appointment of an Officer terminates under the preceding article, Council shall be entitled, at their next meeting to appoint another Trustee to hold such office in his place; a Trustee so appointed shall hold such office until the conclusion of the annual general meeting which next follows such appointment.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

64. A Trustee shall vacate office if
- (a) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Acts or becomes prohibited by law from being a director
 - (b) is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision)
 - (c) he becomes incapable for reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of fulfilling the duties of his office and such incapacity is expected to continue for a period of more than six months
 - (d) he becomes an employee of the Trust
 - (e) he ceases to be a member of the Trust
 - (f) he resigns as a Trustee by notice to the Trust or
 - (g) he is absent (without permission of the Trustees) from more than three successive meetings of Council and Council resolves to remove him from office
 - (h) he brings the Trust into disrepute and is removed by vote of Council.
65. The Trust may by ordinary resolution, of which special notice has been given in accordance with the Acts, remove any Trustee before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these articles or in any agreement between the Trust and such Trustee. The Trust may by ordinary resolution appoint another member in place of a Trustee removed under this article.

PATRON, PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT

66. The Trust may from time to time and if thought fit elect a Patron, President and Vice-President. Such offices shall be honorary.
67. The Patron and President shall be elected for a term not exceeding four years at the annual general meeting following nomination by Council but may be re-elected for further terms.
68. Vice-Presidents shall be elected at the annual general meeting upon the recommendation of Council for such period or periods as may be determined.

TRUSTEES' INTERESTS

69. A Trustee must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Trust or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Trust which has not previously been declared.
70. A Trustee must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Council in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his duty to act solely in the interests of the Trust and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).
71. If a conflict of interests arises for a Trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted Trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
 - 71.1 the conflicted Trustee is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - 71.2 the conflicted Trustee does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting; and
 - 71.3 the unconflicted Trustees consider it is in the interests of the Trust to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

In this article a conflict of interest arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a Trustee or to a connected person.

POWERS OF COUNCIL

72. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the property and funds of the Trust shall be controlled by the Trustees, as charity trustees, who comprise Council and who may exercise all the powers of the Trust.
